6-Elisabeth Catharina HENCKEL³ was born before 19 April 1667 in Merenberg, Hesse-Nassau (Germany)⁵ and was christened on 19 April 1667 in Merenberg, Hesse-Nassau (Germany).⁵

6-Rev. Anthony* Jacob HENCKEL³ was born before 27 October 1668 in Merenberg, Hesse-Nassau (Germany),^{3,9,10} was christened on 27 December 1668 in Evangelical Lutheran Church, Merenberg, Hesse-Darmstadt,^{11,12} died on 12 August 1728 near Germantown, Pennsylvania,¹³ and was buried in 1728 in St. Michael's Lutheran Church, Germantown, Pennsylvania.¹⁴

General Notes: Founded St. Michael's Lutheran Church, Germantown, Pennsylvania

"Was pastor at Eschelbronn (1692-1695), Daudensell and Breitenbronn (1695- 1714), and Neckargemund (1714-1717). Also during this period served congregations at Monchszell and Zuzenhausen. After several disputes with Roman Catholic church authorities and with the parish patron, decided at the age of forty-nine to take his family to Pennsylvania. There is evidence that some of his parishioners or former parishioners may have decided to go along. Date of last pastoral act a Neckargemund was June 3, 1717. Probably reached Pennsylvania in September 1717, when three vessels are known to have arrived.

Settled in New Hanover township, Montgomery County, about one and one-half miles north of the present New Hanover Lutheran church. Spent the rest of his life on the 250 acres of land which he purchased in 1717 or early 1718.

Evidence of his presence in Montgomery County includes the following. First, the deed for the purchase on April 16, 1718, by his son in law Valentine Geiger, of 250 acres, described as adjoining land of Anthony Jacob Henkel. Second his signature (heading the list of forty) on a petition asking for a road through Falkner Swamp, and which was presented to the Philadelphia County Quarter Sessions Court in March 1723. Third his signature on a petition, dated April 17, 1728, from the frontier inhabitants of the county, asking for protection against threatened Indian attacks.

Soon after arriving in late 1717, Henkel resumed his ministry. Organized the first German Lutheran congregation in Pennsylvania at New Hanover. Accurate information about his pastoral activity is scanty because no private register or congregational records that may have kept are known to have survived. Lack of such records is perplexing because of his practice of keeping very careful and complete records in Europe.

Evidence of his pastoral activity in Pennsylvania includes the following. First, the survey in 1719 of forty-nine acres of land for the New Hanover church. Second, his arrest on order of the Assembly in 1725, charged with performing marriages in violation of the laws of the province, because he was an alien. Third, the request of William Christopher Berkenmeyer, minister in New York, addressed in May 1727 to the Swedish Lutheran pastors of Pennsylvania, asking for an investigation of whether Henkel "had assumed the holy office" in Pennsylvania "on his own responsibility and not by the approval or authority of anyone else," and whether he had taken it upon himself to ordain John Bernard van Dieren to the ministry. Fourth, the statement of Philip Boehm in 1730 that George Michael Weiss, several years before, had announced at Skippack and Falkner Swamp "through the Lutheran minister, Mr. Henkel, now deceased" that he would be preaching in those places—the assumption being that Henkel was also preaching there. Fifth, the statement of Henry Melchior Muhlenberg in his obituary of Valentine Geiger, who died in 1762 at New Hanover, that Geiger had lived in this country for forty-five years, and that he had come with his father in law Reverend Henkel, "who at the beginning of the colony held divine services for some years."

Organized the Lutheran congregation at New Hanover. May have organized those at the Trappe, New Goshenhoppen, Germantown, and Philadelphia. Visited Lutherans in the Tulpehocken settlement, urging them to build their first church, which they did in 1727. May have visited Lutherans in other settlements—for example, Conestoga—in much the same way that Philip Boehm was visiting Reformed at about the same time. Boehm began conducting services in 1720 and administering the sacraments in 1725.

On August 12, 1728, while on his way home from Philadelphia, fell from his horse. Either sustained serious injuries in the fall or was perhaps stricken before he fell. Believing death was near, made a nuncupative, or spoken will. Died on the same day. Buried at Germantown. Five days later, witnesses to his will declared "that the testator Anthony Jacob Henkel, on the twelfth day of this instant August fell off his horse on the Road from Philadelphia to his house in Hanover Township, which disabled him, and he was carried to the house of the deponent Herman Groothousen in the Manor of Springfield, where the testator lying very ill, bid the deponents take notice ...[of what he was saying], and the deponents today that the said testator at the time of his speaking the said nuncupative will was of sound mind, memory, and understanding, to the best of their knowledge." Letters of administration were granted to his widow, Maria Elizabeth on September 14, 1728.

Anthony Jacob Henkel must be regarded as the founder of the German Lutheran church in the Pennsylvania field. For ten or eleven years he was the only known German Lutheran pastor in the province. What little evidence there is of his pastoral activity suggests that he devoted as much time and energy to it as he could. From Henkel and his wife there has descended a large and distinguished progeny, including many ministers and other professional people. Funeral services over the remains of John Hinkle were held from his late home on East Oak street Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. A large number of relatives, neighbors and friends called to pay a last tribute to the memory of the deceased. Dr. J. M. Avann, pastor of the Methodist church, delivered the funeral sermon and spoke many words of comfort which came as a balm to the sore and aching hearts of the bereaved family. The singers were Mrs. A. Banister and Mrs. Ben Smith. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Interment took place in Maplewood cemetery. The following life-long friends acted as pallbearers: George Bassett, Alonzo Jones, George Rockwell, Silas Forbes, George Baker and Clause Ruge.

- Death Fact: Shot to death, 1906, Valparaiso, Porter County, Indiana.⁹⁷ GUY HINKLE IS SHOT TO DEATH --- Frank Carist An Italian Section Hand, Handled the Deadly Weapon that was the Instrument of murder ---
Valparaiso's quietness was disturbed this noon by the announcement that a murder had taken place within its borders. Upon investigation it proved to be true. Guy Hinkle, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hinkle, of East Oak street, was shot to death by Frank Carist, an Italian employed as a section hand on the Pennsylvania railroad [sic]. The murdered man as also [sic] employed on the section and as near as can be learned the two men had quarreled some time during the morning over some trivial matters. Just before the noon hour the two men met in the round house, just west of the depot and continued the dispute and it is reported that Hinkle struck the Italian in the face and knocked him down. The Italian immediately jumped to his feet, pulled a gun from his pocket and fired five shots at close range. The shot that proved fatal entered the right neck and came out an inch above and back of the left ear, death resulting in tow minutes. A scare about two inches long the left cheek, which furrowed the skin, told the story of one of the other shots.
Within five minutes after the murder occurred officers were on the trail of the Italian, who started on a run across the marsh, south of the tracks, he lay down in a bunch of shrubbery in hiding. Officers Arnold and Deputy Sheriff Wood, with the assistance of Alonzo Jones and William King, followed his tracks thro' the snow and when within a few feet of where he was concealed, the Italian raised to his feet, then put up his hands and was captured with little difficulty. He was immediately handcuffed and placed on Jones' dray and taken to jail.

At the jail entrance fully 200 people had congregated to get a glimpse of the murderer and it was with some difficulty that he was landed safely behind the bars, as every minute the crowd became more angry at the villain. the thought of an Italian killing an American is more than the ordinary citizen can stand and is looked upon in about the same light as the killing of a white person by a negro. Carist is about forty years old and has been in the country five years, having worked for the Pennsylvania company here about six months. He claims a wife and four children in this country. Upon arrival at the jail the prisoner was compelled to undress so the officers could undergo a thorough search. No revolver nor knife were discovered, but four 32-caliber cartridges were found. It is th[ought that he] threw the gun away while running through the corn field and a search is now being made for the missing weapon.

The body of the murdered man was taken to Le Pell's undertaking parlors, where it was viewed by many people this afternoon. The remains will be taken to the home, 1003 East Oak street this evening.

Carist claims his innocence, but the officers say they have the right man. He trembled like a leaf while being taken to jail, as he keenly knew the anger of the following crowd.

Besides his parents, the murdered man leaves two brothers, Charles and William Hinkle and one sister, Miss Nannie Hinkle, who is bookkeeper at the Vidette office.

Coroner J. C. Carson will hold the inquest tonight.

As the Vidette goes to press the officers have been unable to locate the revolver.

General Notes: According to the 1880 Federal Census for White River Township, Gibson Cauty, Indiana, Lavica was living in John Steelman's household, where she was listed as a cousin. John's wife, Phebe Elizabeth Hinkle, was the sister of Lavica's father Samuel. Seven months later she married George E. Field, becoming his second wife.

Lavica Hinkle

Fall Down Stairs Fatal

Mrs. George Field, on east Oak St. accidentally fell down the cellar stairway at her home about 6 o'clock last evening and sustained injuries which caused her death at 3 o'clock this morning.

The funeral services will be held from the home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Carpenter officiating, with interment following in the Maplewood cemetery.

Deceased was born in Springfield, Ohio, and was the daughter of Samuel and Nancy Hinkle. Eight children were born in her family, all being dead except one sister, Margaret Canster, of Long Lane, Mo. She was married in 1880 to George E. Field and has lived in Valparaiso since 1882. Six children were born to this union, Clarence, Walter, Harvey and Nelson, of this city, Elmer of Chicago. The only daughter, Mary, died when 8 years of age. Mr. Field, the husband, died 7 years ago. She was a life long member of the Methodist church and was beloved by a large circle of friends.

When the accident, which caused her death, occurred, she had gone to get some butter for the evening meal and had a plate and knife in her hand, but stepped into an open cellar door, falling to the concrete floor below. No bones were broken, but she was picked up unconscious and never rallied from the effects of the fall sufficient to regain consciousness.

One of Valparaiso's Well Known Citizens passes to the Beyond this Morning after Lingering Illness. FUNERAL MONDAY A.M.

Geo. E. Field, a well known and highly esteemed resident of this city, died this morning at 7 o'clock at his home, 1001 Oak street. He had been in a precarious condition for some time and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Field suffered an illness about a year ago from leakage of the heart. He continued to work at his trade of printing until several months ago, when his condition became critical and he was forced to take to his bed. Bright's disease developed and he became so ill that no hopes were held out for his ultimate recovery.

The deceased was born in Gibson County, Indiana, near Hazleton, on December 23, 1849. When a young man he acquired the rudiments of the printing trade and followed this for a number of years. He also taught school and then worked at the trade of carpenter until he became a contractor. This and the occupation of printer he followed the rest of his life.

On September 15, 1875, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Knaub, who died on October 19, 1876. To this union one son, Wilbur Wallace, who died at the age of 2. On January 19, 1881, he was married to Miss Lavica Hinkle, who survives him together with five children—Clarence, Walter, Harvey, and Nelson Field of this city, and Elmer Field of Chicago. A daughter, Mary Ellen, died at the age of eight years. One brother Cain R. Field, of Patoka, Ind., also survives.

Mr. Field came to Valparaiso in 1882, and lived continuously in this city and county. He followed his trade as a carpenter in this city until thirteen years ago, when he established a printing office, doing all kinds of printing and bookbinding. This he maintained until he was forced by sickness to close his

Noted events in his life were:

- Office: state senator and United States representative for the 2nd district.²⁵⁷ Earl F. Landgrebe
From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Earl_Landgrebe

Earl Fredrick Landgrebe (January 21, 1916 – July 1, 1986) was a politician and businessman. He served as an Indiana state senator and United States representative for the 2nd district. Landgrebe was from Valparaiso in Porter County, Indiana. He is remembered in jest, if not outright contempt, for his famous line at the Watergate hearings: "Don't confuse me with the facts." [1] He stuck with Richard Nixon until the bitter end.

Landgrebe was born near Valparaiso in 1916, the son of Edward William Landgrebe and Benna Marie Landgrebe (née Broderman). He married Helen Lucille Field on July 12, 1936. He was elected to the state senate of Indiana in 1959 as a Republican and served there until 1968. In that year, he was elected to represent Indiana's 2nd district in the House of Representatives.

On August 5, 1974, Richard Nixon released certain documents revealing his orders to aides to hinder the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) investigation of the Watergate break-in. When Landgrebe was asked on August 7 about the apparently unanimous support for impeachment of Nixon among his Republican colleagues following this disclosure, he said: "I'm going to stick with my President even if he and I have to be taken out of this building and shot." The next day, Richard Nixon announced his resignation. A few months later, Landgrebe was shown the door by his constituents. His re-election bid was derailed by Democrat Floyd Fithian.

After his defeat, Earl Landgrebe returned to his home in Valparaiso where he owned and managed Landgrebe Motor Transport Inc., a common carrier and freight hauling company. In February 1980, the Machinist Union was on strike at the Union Rolls Corporation in Valparaiso, Indiana. The former congressman personally confronted picketers with a tractor trailer. On February 13th he completed two trips into the Union Rolls plant to pick up and haul away merchandise. Both times, the Union unsuccessfully tried to prevent his entrance into the plant. On a third trip later that day, he was not so fortunate. Union members surrounded the truck. They swung clubs and broke mirrors and shattered glass. Landgrebe was showered with broken glass. A local sheriff broke up the incident. [2]

Descendants of Anthony Henckel

On July 1, 1986 he died at home of a heart attack. He was 70 years old.[3]

The exact quote was: "Don't confuse me with the facts, I have a closed mind."

Walter Field, head brakeman on the Grand Trunk west local, met with a rather serious but fortunate accident this noon. The local had just returned from the daily trip and Field was in the act of climbing upon one of the cars, when his right foot slipped off the step and landed directly in front of the wheel. The great toe was cut off and the others were crushed. The injured man was taken to his home on East Oak street. It was almost a miracle that the foot was not lost in the accident.

- He resided at 805 Oak St. in Valparaiso, Porter County, Indiana in 1918.²⁷⁰
- Suffers Broken Arm: Valparaiso, Porter County, Indiana.²⁷¹ Suffers Broken Arm --
Walter Field, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Field, is carrying his right arm in a sling today, as the result of an accident yesterday. The young man is employed as a brakeman at the Pennsy local west, and it was while in the performance of his duties that the accident occurred. He was connecting the air hose, when in some manner his arm was twisted breaking one of the bones in his forearm. Fortunately the break is not very serious.
- He resided at 402 Park Ave. in Valparaiso, Porter County, Indiana in 1951.¹⁸⁴
- He worked as an employee of the Indiana Steel Products company.¹⁸⁴

Marie Jeanette Eddy

Noted events in their marriage were:

- Location: 17 June 1909, Methodist Parsonage, Valparaiso, Porter County, Indiana.³²⁹

General Notes: Marie Jeanette Eddy Field is our mystery ancestor even though many of us knew her personally.

Her mother was a woman from New York City, possibly named Mary Murray Driscoll and her father could have been one of several men. The first possibility is Jeremiah Driscoll. There was a Jeremiah Driscoll listed twice in Trow's New York City Directory. Once in 1891-1892 and again in 1892-1893. The possibility of Jeremiah Driscoll being Marie's father comes from a copy of a birth certificate we have for a Maria Driscoll born 20 April 1892, and whose mother was Mary A. Driscoll, maiden name Murray. The father is listed as Jeremiah Driscoll. However, Marie always listed her birthday as 23 April 1891, so this document may not be her birth certificate.

There is a record of a Mary Driscoll having been placed in the care of the St. Patrick's Girls Orphanage on 5 May 1891, by her mother. We have a letter from Sister Miriam Augustine of the Closed Records Office of the orphanage stating the date of her arrival and the fact that she was under the care of the orphanage until her adoption on 27 May 1897. Marie was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Elbert H. Eddy of Chicago, Illinois.

We have a letter from Mrs. Olive Eddy Perry dated 5 March 1966, a granddaughter of Elbert H. Eddy and Maria Smith Currier the adopted parents of Marie. The letter gives us the following information:

Elbert H. Eddy was a traveling seed salesman for the Vaughn Seed Co. Mrs. Perry states that her grandmother did not see Marie until the day she arrived to live with them. Upon the death of Elbert H. Eddy (30 September 1898) Maria Smith Currier Eddy went to live with Olive's mother, who would have been her daughter-in-law. Olive's mother was Eva L. but we have no maiden name. This was a strange arrangement since Eva and Elbert Bertram Eddy (son of Elbert H. and Maria Smith Currier Eddy) were divorced by this time. Olive states in her letter that, "Grandma dressed Marie beautifully. Grandmother was a cruel woman— proud." ("Grandma" being Maria Smith Currier Eddy)

It seems that Maria Smith Currier Eddy had been treated unjustly in her mother's will. Olive's mother was instrumental in getting a fair adjustment for Maria. Maria then bought a home in Valparaiso, Indiana. This is where Marie met Harvey Field, her future husband. They both worked in the publishing business.

Olive goes on to state that Harvey and Marie spent their honeymoon with her family. She concludes her letter by saying that after Harvey and Marie were married there was a "coolness" between Maria Eddy and Marie and Harvey Field. It is generally thought in the family that Marie did not have a very happy childhood. She would absolutely never tell anyone, even her daughters, the details of her younger years.

There are two another possible men who might have been Marie's natural father. The next possibility is her adopted father Elbert H. Eddy. He was a traveling seed salesman and just might have had an affair with a woman in New York and Marie was the resulting child. He may have decided the "right thing" to do was to "adopt" her and provide her with a home. He died 30 September 1898, when Marie was only seven years old leaving her with a stepmother who had been "wronged" by her husband. This was just one year after Marie's adoption. This could have been the reason Maria was "cruel" to Marie, a constant reminder of her husband's infidelity. Had Elbert lived he may have moderated Maria's behavior toward Marie.

The final possibility is that Elbert Bertram Eddy was her father. He was the oldest son of Elbert H. Eddy and Maria Smith Currier and possibly he fathered Marie while in New York and his father decided to adopt her. Elbert Bertram Eddy was 23 at the time Marie was born.

It is a fascinating story and the truth is that we will most likely never know the real story. The details died with Marie and maybe that is just how she wanted it to be.

Another interesting aspect of Marie's life is her relationship with Harvey O. Field. Harvey was a man with a complex personality. He was intelligent, self-made, confident and at times could be kind and generous and at other times stern and even cruel. Marie had an unfailing loyalty to him. As stated above he was the man that "rescued" her from a possibly unhappy childhood. He provided her with a stable secure life after their marriage. They met in Chicago while working for Glennon & Kern, some type of publishing company. He was definitely the dominant partner in their marriage but that was often the case in their era. We of course, have no idea if he consulted her before making major decisions but she always seemed to follow his lead. There are stories that he would change her choices of food in restaurants and she would not argue. At one point she wanted her kitchen modernized but he refused. However, the explosion of a pressure cooker while cooking beans made it necessary to for some repairs to be done to the kitchen.

We know of one time at least when Marie had the final word. Harvey was the owner/editor of the Nappanee Advance News from 29 July 1927 to 2 July 1953, when he sold the business. It was always the plan that upon Harvey's retirement his three surviving sons, Leslie, Howard and Glen would take over the operation of the paper. There was a point when Harvey was seriously contemplating retirement and was ready to turn the paper over to the sons. At that point Marie said no and she and Harvey continued to operate the business until his retirement in 1953. Before this time the boys had all gone into other lines of work and the paper was sold.

In her later years she suffered from high blood pressure. There were at least two occasions when she was near death and hospitalized. The family was advised that she would probably die. Each time she recovered saying, "I need to get home to take care of Harvey." There is also another family story that she lost her eyesight due to a blood clot in her brain. One evening her sight returned and she immediately wanted to see as many of the family photographs as possible. Unfortunately, regaining her vision was not permanent.

Harvey died 8 February 1966. Following the funeral Marie went with her oldest son, Leslie, and wife, Wanda, to Marion, Indiana. She died 15 February 1966, just one week later. We think it can be stated that with her major reason for living now gone she could die.

One story Wanda told was that at some point during the week she was at their home in Marion she did make the comment that she would like Les and Wanda to take her to "Hawayah." It seems that Marie had a longing to see Hawaii. Harvey would not taker her there. Most of their life they avoided flying. For their final visit to California to see their son Howard it was either fly or not go. They were not able to make the drive. As they were walking toward the plane Harvey told her she could still back out if she was too frightened but she got on the plane. The experience was so unexpectedly pleasant that they decided to take a bigger trip. Marie wanted Hawaii but Harvey chose to visit the capitals of several South American countries. That was their one big adventure in international travel.

Her adult life was not without its sad times. She lost one son, Guy Arthur, at birth in 1929. She tragically lost another son, Eugene Chester, at age 16. He was struck by a car while collecting insects for his biology class. His death was a great blow to her. Her daughters have commented that she was never quite the same after this tragedy.

Marie, "Grandma Field" was the "perfect" grandma. She loved her grand children and my fondest memories are of her in her kitchen making me pancakes in the shape of any animal I asked for. Of course turtles were my favorite!

- Church Affiliation: Nappanee Methodist Church, Bet 1927 and 1945, Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana.³⁴⁰ Howard could be described as a quietly religious man. He attended church faithfully most of his life. Not much is known about how he felt about religion in his younger years. His parents were not avid church goers. He joined the Nappanee Methodist Church sometime in high school and from that point on was an active member of the Methodist Church where ever he lived. At various times he taught Sunday School classes mainly for adults. He attended Bible study classes and did much volunteer work for the churches of which he was a member.

He was most active in St. Paul's Methodist Church in Fresno, California. At the peak of his church work the minister of the church was Rev. Thomas P. Krumpe. Howard had great admiration for Tom as a person and as a pastor. Tom's wife was Geraldine and she was the perfect pastor's wife. Howard and Miriam were close personal friends of Tom and Geraldine even long after they move on from the Fresno Church.

Howard was on various boards and committees of the church. He was a lay minister and would give the sermons when the pastor was away. He organized many functions for the church. One comical incident happened as the result of a dinner he helped organize. There was much preparation leading up to the dinner and of course the work of the actual dinner. As the cleanup committee was finishing up it was very late at night and he made the decision to leave the silverware soaking in water with Clorox in it over night and he would return the next day to wash the utensil. When he returned the next morning the Clorox had dissolved the plating off the silverware and it was totally ruined. He was pretty distressed over this.

He insisted that his sons and wife attend Sunday School and Sunday Services on a regular basis. For the most part they complied. There is no record of the point when John and Pody stopped attending church but Eugene attended faithfully well into his college years. By that time there was a new pastor, Rev. Tom Lundy. He was not as dynamic nor as charismatic as Rev. Krumpe but Howard was loyal to the church and so to Rev. Lundy as well. Eugene's last day attending Sunday Services at St. Paul's Methodist Church, or any church after that, was when, during a typical sermon contrasting good and evil Rev. Lundy made the amazingly unsubstantiated claim that, "...the reason the dinosaurs became extinct was because they were evil!" Eugene stood up and walked out of the church completely disgusted at such ignorance and has rarely attended a church service since. This reaction by Eugene mortified his mother Miriam.

Howard continued to be a faithful Methodist even after Miriam, who was an amazingly talented musician, was informed by the wife of the pastor of the Kingsburg Methodist Church that she was not qualified to play the new $40,000 organ installed in the church. Howard would attend alone on Sunday mornings and continued this activity until late in his life. If there is a Heaven he is no doubt there.

- He worked as a printer at the Nappanee Advance-News from about 1927 to 1945 in Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana.³⁴⁰ Howard began working as a printer some time while in high school. His parents owned the Nappanee Advance-News. Several of his siblings worked there as well. His parents had bought the newspaper in 1927. The eventual plan was that when Harvey and Marie retired Howard and his brothers would take over the business. One by one the children moved into different jobs. Les moved to Marion to open a shoe shop. Myrtle married and began raising her family. Glen moved out of Nappanee and into different jobs.

By 1945 Howard was married and had two children and his wife Miriam was pregnant with their third child. This is how Howard told the story. In the summer of 1945 he was earning $25 per week. He had a growing family and was making house payments. The money just did not stretch far enough. He asked his father for a raise to $60 a week. According to Howard his father's answer was, "No man is worth $60 a week." That was devastating to Howard who returned home to tell Miriam that he had decided to quit working for his father and move as far away as he could get. He found a job opening at the Turlock Daily Journal being advertised in the journal of the Typographical union. He contacted the paper and was offered the job.

The house was sold and an auction was held to sell much of the family possessions. The family celebrated John's first birthday in the home of Floyd and Hazel Grasz and the next day drove out of town in the Lincoln Zephyr and headed for Turlock, California.

Howard began work at the Turlock Daily Journal and for some reason did not like the job. He was ready to quit after three days and move on when a man named Bus Schaller offered him a job as a printer at a small job shop at the west end of Turlock. Howard worked there for three years and then began working for the Modesto Bee. After coming back to Turlock from a trip to Indiana, the first one back since leaving, he found himself on the sub list and not as a full time employee. The boss told him that if he went to Fresno Bee he would have a much greater chance of working full time. So in the fall of 1950 Howard began working at the Fresno Bee. He worked there for a few weeks while the family prepared to move from Turlock to Fresno. In October of 1945 the family moved to Fresno and Howard worked at the Fresno Bee until 1976 when he retired.

His job at both the Modesto Bee and Fresno Bee was in the composing room. Basically he set the type for advertisements. In the beginning of his career type was set by typing on a linotype machine and hot melted lead was molded into lines of type. These would then be set into forms to make up the pages of the paper. Before the end of his career things changed to the point that the pages of the paper were being created on computers. The key board of the linotype machine had a different arrangement than a standard keyboard so Howard took a night school class in typing to learn to type on a standard typewriter keyboard. Much changed in the world of newspaper production during his career and he kept up with the changes.

Howard was never a person to complain. He just did his work and kept quiet. However, he did make a statement one time that pretty much revealed how he felt about his job. In affect he said, "A man is not supposed to like his job. It is just a means to make money to support his family."

- He graduated from Nappanee High School in 1929 in Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana.^{338,360,361}
- He resided at 155 Metzler St. in Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana between 1938 and 1945.^{340,357}

- He moved from Turlock, Stanislaus County, California, in October 1950 to Fresno, Fresno County, California.³⁴⁰
- Church Affiliation: St. Paul's Methodist Church, Bet 1950 and 1972, Fresno, Fresno County, California.^{338,340} While a member of this church he was a lay minister.
- He worked as an a printer for Harold G. "Bus" Schaller's Print Shop between 1945 and 1948 in Turlock, Stanislaus County, California.^{340,362} When Howard first moved to Turlock, California, he worked at the Turlock Daily Journal. He had that job lined up before he ever moved from Nappanee, Indiana. He started working at the Turlock Journal and did not like it and quit after just three days. A man working there as a machinest asked him to work as a printer at his shop near the presnet intersection of Main Street and Lander road. The man was Harold G. "Bus" Schaller. Howard worked there for three years before going to the Modesto Bee. While working for Bus Schaller he was asked to work three days in Patterson at the Patterson Irrigator. Many years later his daughter-in-law, Anne Healy Field worked there as the office manager.
- He moved from Fresno, Fresno County, California in 1973 to Kingsburg, Fresno County, California.³⁴⁰ In the fall of 1973, they lived in an apartment in Selma while they built the house in Kingsburg.
- He worked in the composing room at the Modesto Bee as an advertisement layout man from 1948 to 1950 in Modesto, Stanislaus County, California.^{338,358,363,364}
- He worked in the composing room at the Fresno Bee as an advertisement layout man from 1950 to 1976 in Fresno, Fresno County, California.^{338,358,363,364}
- He resided at 3943 Maywood Dr. South in Fresno, Fresno County, California between 1950 and 1972.^{186,314,340}
- Miscellaneous: Member of the Kingsburg River Golf and County Club, 1972-1988, Kingsburg Cemetery, Kingsburg, Fresno County, California.³³⁸
- He resided at 40193 Rd. 32 in Kings County, California between 1972 and 1989.³⁴⁰ The actual residence was in Tulare County, just east of the county line which was the Kings River.

- He enjoyed golf, photography, genealogy, antiques, playing cards, camping and hiking and sports of all kinds.³⁴⁰ Howard had many hobbies and activities that gave enjoyment to his life. Golf was his life long passion. He started playing golf as a young man while living in Nappanee. His father played and so did his brothers. He took the sport seriously and was a better than average amateur player all is adult life. Throughout his life he played as often as he could. He played in many tournaments and won several trophies. He was proud of his golf skills. Before leaving Indiana he and his friend Bob Wasson were seriously looking into the possibilities of opening up a miniature golf course. At that time (mid 1940s) that was a very popular form of recreation. He and Bob had land picked out and they even bought the clubs for the pending business. Then he moved to California and I can remember having miniature golf clubs every where for the rest of his life. He loved golf so much that in the late 1960s he bought a lot on the Kings River Golf course. In the early 1970s he and Miriam built a home on the course and that is where he lived in his retirement. He loved living there and played golf as many days of retirement as he could. One thing he loved to do was tee off from his front yard at times when there were no other players on the course. He loved playing with two of his sons, John and Pody. When his grandson Victor, was old enough he would take him out on the course and taught him to play golf as well. Howard played even when he was dying of cancer and played right up till nearly the very end of his life.

Howard did have other hobbies he liked. He always liked photography. This was a hobby that grew out of his work in the newspaper business. His photography hobby really took off with the introduction of the Argus C3 35mm slide camera. His father bought one and showed it to him on a visit to California from Indiana. Howard bought one and took photos for years with it.

He also liked to refinish furniture, especially antique pieces. He had many projects over the years. This led eventually into a business he and Miriam had later in their lives. Sometime before he retired he and Miriam started selling antique collectibles and small pieces of furniture. They would take trips to Indiana to visit family and while there buy items they knew would sell for more money in California. Today his son Eugene owns several pieces of furniture that he refinished. One is a Hoosier Kitchen cabinet that was built at the Coppes, Zook and Mutchler of Nappanee, Indiana. As Howard was refinishing the Hoosier he realized that there was a signature on the back. It turned out to be that if Claud Minor who was the uncle of his sister's husband.

When Howard was young and his sons were of the right age he liked to take them camping and hiking. He was the Cub and Boy Scout Master of troops in Turlock and Fresno. It was when he was Boy Scout Master of the St. Paul's Methodist Boy Scout Troop that he did most of his camping and hiking. He would take the scouts on camping and hiking trips and also his family.

Howard was also an avid sports fan. When he was young he played baseball and basketball. He told me he did not grow early in high school so he was small for sports but by the time he was a senior he was playing sports. He loved to watch sports on TV from boxing to football. He liked to attend the local Fresno baseball farm team summer games. He never missed a game his sons played. His sons John and Pody were excellent basketball players and he loved nothing more than watching them play. He and Miriam also faithfully attended the Bing Crosby ProAm golf tournaments played on the Monterey, California, area golf courses.

- She resided at 957 E. Walnut Ave. in Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana in 1918.³⁴⁰ Miriam was born in this house.
- Church Affiliation: Nappanee First Brethren Church, Bet 1918 and 1938, Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana.^{372,373} Miriam began life attending the Nappanee First Brethren Church, the church of her parents. Not much is known about the church activities of her parents other than that they were faithful life-long members of that church. Miriam no doubt attended at the insistence of her parents. Upon marrying Howard she became a member of the Nappanee Methodist Church of Nappanee, Indiana. From various comments by Miriam her involvement with the Nappanee Methodist Church was a positive one. As she was an outstanding organist she was the organist of this church. It is not known if this was a paid position or not. She attended Sunday School classes and her first two were sons baptized in that church. After moving to Turlock, California, she and Howard transferred their membership to the Turlock Methodist Church. They were very active in that church and made many lasting friendships with other members. At some point Miriam became the official organist of the Turlock church. Whether she was paid for this service or not she enjoyed doing it. She would attend choir practice in the middle of the week and play on Sunday.

Following the move to Fresno she soon became the official organist of the St. Paul's Methodist church there. She was also active in what was known as women's circles and other organizations associated with the church. She taught Sunday School for sixth grade kids at one point. This was less than a positive experience. She was not a trained teacher and most likely did this because no one else would. Her son Eugene was in her classes and he remembers her having a tough time controlling the sixth grade boys of the class who no doubt were way more interested in the sixth grade girls than the Sunday School lesson for the week. She did not last long as a sixth grade Sunday School Teacher.

Her church attendance continued after the move to Kingsburg, California. As was her usual pattern she soon became the church organist. It can be said with certainty that her church attendance and loyalty was tied to her organ playing. This position lead to her eventual disdain for organized religion. At some point the Kingsburg Methodist Church decided that a new organ was needed. A $40,000 instrument was purchased and installed and Miriam was set to make heavenly $40,000 music. The wife of the minister very quickly informed Miriam that even though she had 12 years of piano and organ lessons, played the cello for a while, had experience in four previous churches with complete success, was the organist for a funeral home in Turlock and was qualified to play the less than $40,000 organ of the Kingsburg Methodist church... she was in fact just not qualified to play the new $40,000 organ! In complete humiliation and very hurt feelings she left the Kingsburg Methodist Church never to return.

From comments made by Miriam, it is certain she retained a basic belief in God. She would make comments like, "I talked to the Man Upstairs," and asked for this or that. But as far as having any desire to go to church it was ended with the organ debacle. Church attendance for Miriam was very much tied to the pleasure of music.

- She resided at 356 W. Market St. in Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana from about 1930 to 1938.³⁴⁰ Miriam was born at 957 E. Walnut St., Nappanee, Indiana. At some point before 1930 the family moved to 356 W. Market St. Her mother died in this house in 1931. Her father remarried and the family moved two houses east to the home of Mandy Blosser, his mother-in-law. They eventually moved back 356 Market St., where Miriam lived until she got married in 1938.
- Band Member: played the piano in the Nappanee Marimba Band, Abt 1936, Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana.³⁴⁰
- She graduated from Nappanee High School in 1936 in Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana.^{360,374}

- Church Affiliation: Nappanee Methodist Church, Bet 1938 and 1945, Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana.³⁴⁰

Descendants of Anthony Henckel

- She resided at 155 Metzler St. in Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana between 1938 and 1945.³⁴⁰
- She worked as an Organist between 1938 and 1974.³⁶⁰ Miriam was the organist for the Methodist Church in Nappanee, Indiana, until she moved to Turlock, California in 1945. She became the organist for the Methodist Church in Turlock until she moved to Fresno in 1950. She was also the organist for the Hale Funeral Home while she lived in Turlock. She became the organist for St. Paul's Methodist Church in Fresno and also for a time the organist for the First Methodist Church of Fresno. When she moved to Kingsburg in 1973, she then became the organist for the Methodist Church there. At some point the Kingsburg Methodist Church purchased a $40,000 organ. The wife of the minister of the Kingsburg Church told my mother that she was not qualified to play an organ of that quality. Her feelings were deeply hurt and she never played professionally again. This was a tragedy because she was an outstanding musician with years of training and experience. She was more than qualified to play the $40,000 organ.
- She immigrated from Nappanee, Elkhart County, Indiana, on 1 September 1945 to Turlock, Stanislaus County, California.³⁴⁰
- She resided at 410 Thor St. in Turlock, Stanislaus County, California between 1945 and 1950.³⁴⁰

- Church Affiliation: St. Paul's Methodist Church, Bet 1950 and 1972, Fresno, Fresno County, California.^{338,340}
- She worked as an antique dealer between 1976 and 1988 in Fresno, Kingsburg and Modesto, California.³⁴⁰ The business was called Miriam's Antiques. They also sold antiques at various antique shows.
- She moved from Fresno, Fresno County, California in 1973 to Kingsburg, Fresno County, California.³⁴⁰ In the fall of 1973, they lived in an apartment in Selma while they built the house in Kingsburg.
- She resided at 40193 Rd. 32 in Kings County, California between 1973 and 1989.^{340,371} The actual residence was in Tulare County, just east of the county line which was the Kings River.
- Church Affiliation: Kingsburg Methodist Church, Bet 1973 and 1988, Kingsburg, Fresno County, California.³⁴⁰
- She resided at 333 Kern St., Park Kingsburg in Kingsburg, Fresno County, California between 1999 and 2007.³⁴⁰
- She resided at Bethel Lutheran Home, 2280 Dockery Ave. in Selma, Fresno County, California bet 1 October 2007 - September 25 2009.
- She was buried at the Kingsburg Cemetery in Kingsburg, Fresno County, California on 30 September.
- Tombstone Inscription: Loving wife, mother & grandma/Miriam Elaine Grasz Field/wife of Howard Allen Field/May 28, 1918 - Sept. 25, 2009/B. Nappanee In. D. Selma Ca, 30 September 2009, Kingsburg Cemetery, Kingsburg, Fresno County, California.³⁷⁶

General Notes: BICYCLE-AUTO COLLISION BRINGS DEATH TO EUGENE FIELD

Eugene Chester Field

ANOTHER ACCIDENT TOOK PLACE ON Wednesday afternoon of last week shortly after 5 o'clock on U. S. 6 when Eugene Chester Field on a bicycle collided with an auto driven by Frank N. Centlivere, of Fort Wayne. Eugene died at the home of his parents, Mr. And Mrs. Harvey Field on Saturday morning at about 12:30 from injuries sustained.

Being interested in some of his school studies Eugene had left home early Wednesday morning to find some specimens for the class at school, taught by Charles Byers. Not finding what he wanted as he had to get to school he again started on his search Wednesday evening after school accompanied by Arthur Sharp, a neighbor boy and playmate. The two were returning to their homes when the accident occurred. Just what happened is not known. The boys turned on to U. S. 6 from the unimproved road leading south just west of the city and started eastward. A strong wind, cyclonic in its nature had sprung up and indications seemed to show that a gust caused the boy to turn back onto the pavement to keep his balance and this was done just in time for the front wheel of the bicycle to strike the passing car. The collision threw the boy against the side of the car and he was then pitched across the concrete to strike upon his face in the gravel in the lane leading to the Kuhns home just west of Nappanee.

Mr. Centlivre stopped his car partly in the ditch in his attempt to avoid the collision. He went to the boy's assistance, hurried to Nappanee and took a doctor to the scene. The youngster was taken to the parents' home where everything was done but to no avail and he passed away Saturday after much suffering.

Descendants of Anthony Henckel

Besides his parents Eugene leaves three brothers, Leslie, Howard and Glen and three sisters, Myrtle, Mary and Rae Ellen. He was born on June 12, 1920 at Valparaiso, Ind., and came to Nappanee in 1927. He was active in Boy Scout work and though no troop was active at the Methodist church, where he belonged as a member of the church, he associated himself with the troop at the Presbyterian church. He was the highest ranking active scout in the city at the time of his death. He was a sophomore in the Nappanee high school and president of the Friendly Neighbor club, an organization of children of about his age which had been organized in the west part of the city. He had peddled the Shoppers Guide in the west part of the city for the past two years and was one of the best known youngsters in the city because of a ready smile and a quick response to all advances on the part of those he met. He will long be remembered by those he came in contact with.

Funeral services were held at the home on West Market street Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. R. J. Burns of the Methodist church of Fort Wayne officiating and interment was in the Violet cemetery, south of Goshen, under the direction of Undertaker A. E. Wright. Rev. Burns was pastor of the Nappanee Methodist church when Eugene voluntarily joined the church and as he was a personal friend of Mr. Burns it was appreciated by the family that the minister received leave of absence from the conference which was being held at Kokomo and came to have charge of the service.

IN APPRECIATION

As editor of the Advanced News I have attempted to give our subscribers as near a correct story as could be had of the accident. This has been one of the hardest tasks ever confronted by me. My wife and I and every member of the family want to express our thanks to everyone that helped us in our trying moments. Expressions of sympathy sending of flowers, assisting in the preparing of meals and countless other acts by our many friends are services which words cannot answer. Hundreds of friends called to extend sympathy and offer services and in this small way we want everyone to know we appreciate this more than can be said. Please accept this as our thanks to you. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Field Accident Victim

Eugene Chester Field, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey O. Field, died early Saturday morning at the family home, 802 West Market street, in Nappanee, from injuries received Wednesday evening of last week when the bicycle he was riding side-swiped a car driven by Frank Centlivre, of Fort Wayne, Ind

Eugene, who was a member of the Methodist church, was a sophomore in the Nappanee High school, and had gone with a classmate Arthur Sharp, on their bicycles, to gather material for their biology class at the high school, when the fatal accident occurred. The wind blew Eugene's bicycle against Mr. Centlivre's car, which was being driven east of U.S. road No 6, in front of the Daniel Smucker lane, one-half mile east of Nappanee.

Death was caused by a brain concussion. The body also suffered bad bruises to his lips and forehead and had one tooth knocked out and a piece of another broken off.

Eugene was born June 12, 1920, in Valparaiso, Ind., coming to Nappanee nine years ago with his parents. Mr. Field is editor of the Nappanee Advance-News. In addition to his parents, the boy is survived by three brothers, Leslie O. and Glen U. Field, both of whom are married and living in Nappanee, and Howard A. Field, at the parental home; and three sisters, Myrtle M., Mary L. and Rae Ellen Field, all at the parental home.

- His obituary was published on 6 April 1883.⁴⁹² Death at the Feast -- A Wedding in one Room and a Corpse in Another -- Special to the Evansville News.
Hazleton, Inc, April 6. -- The singular incident occurred in this neighborhood last night of wedding taking place with the bride's brother-in-law lying a corpse in the house. The circumstances are these: Miss Jane Field, living about three miles south of here, at Field's station, with her mother, was to be married yesterday evening to a young man living on an adjoining farm. Joseph Van Nostran and his wife, who are brother-in-law and sister to Miss Field, had gone out from Patoka to be present; Mrs. V. had been staying a few days, assisting her sister to get ready for the wedding. Yesterday about 2 o'clock Mr. V. took a chill, but thought nothing of it, as he had been having the third-day chills. About 5 o'clock the chill apparently left him, and he expressed himself as feeling better. About half-past five, when the guests had arrived, the groom and minister had come, and supper was on the table awaiting the ceremony, it was discovered that he was dead. The ceremony was performed, however, those present conversing in a whisper.
- Death Cause: third day chills, 5 April 1883, Hazleton, Gibson County, Indiana.⁴⁹² Third day chills is malaria.
- Census 1870: son in the household of Ann Markley, age 22, born Ohio, 1870, White River Twp. Gibson County, Indiana.⁶⁹

The neighborhood of the Steelman Settlement was the seat of quite a pleasant affair last week -- a double wedding: Mr. John Steelman led Miss Mina A. Knaub, and George Field led Miss Sallie J. Knaub to the hymenal alter. We wish them happiness and success through life.

- Biography:⁵⁴⁷ J. W. Steelman, a leading and influential farmer of White River township, was born July 20, 1853, and was the sixth child of John W. and Elizabeth (Hinkle) Steelman. His paternal grandfather was of English birth, but his parents were probably Welsh. Their emigration to America was followed by their immediate settlement in Ohio, where some of their descendants still reside. The maternal grandfather of our subject was John Hinkle, who emigrated from the Keystone State to Ohio, and thence to Indiana. John W. Steelman, the father, was born in Champaign County, Ohio, seventy-four years ago, and in 1863 removed from Clark County, that state, to Gibson County, where his remaining days were passed. During his long life he was an industrious, useful and thrifty citizen. In his youth he learned the cooper's trade, which he followed much of the time until his removal to Indiana. He has a wide acquaintance, and all who knew him respected him for his sterling worth. Mr. and Mrs. Steelman were the parents of the following named children: Rebecca, wife of Frank Barnes; Catherine, wife of Aaron Wayne, of Clark County, Kansas; Phoebe, wife of Reuben Sibert; William, who married Ellen Robb, and is now deceased; Amanda, deceased; Mark; Mary, who has also passed away; Henry; Fannie, wife of William McFetridge; Ellen; and Dora, wife of Alex Hinkle. Mr. Steelman whose name introduces this sketch, began his education in the common schools of Ohio, and completed it in School District No. 4 of White River township. On the 15th of September, 1875, he married Miss Caroline Knaub, daughter of Norman and Caroline (McCartney) Knaub, both of whom are now deceased. The father, a native of Pennsylvania, died September 8, 1893. Mr. and Mrs. Steelman are the parents of seven children - Eva, who died at the age of two years; Fred, Frank, Fern, Mary, Arthur and Lulu. Mr. Steelman is a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Odd Fellows' Society, and also belongs to the Methodist Episcopal Church. His entire life has been devoted to farming and in his undertakings has met with a fair degree of success, resulting from his enterprise and diligence.

General Notes: born on farm 2 miles north of Hazleton

Died, June 21, 1878, Eva Mae Steelman daughter of J. W. and Nina A. Steelman, age, 1 year, 11 months.

Died, July 1st, 1878, Wilbur Wallace Field, son of Geo. E. and Sarah. J. Field.

Two little darlings so free from sin,
Moved about from morn till night,
First out of doors then back again,
At every bush and plant in sight.

Grandma's flowers have been spoiled,
Grandma's choicest fruit is gone,
Papa and mamma's books are soiled,
It was Eva and Wallie--no harm is done.

Disease has come with violent force,
And seizes Eva's little form,
A few short days, it takes its course,
And oh! how we wait the coming morn.

With the morning sun the Death Angel came
And carried her away on wings of love;
Oh! Lord, help us to say, "Thy will be done!"
She has gone to that home above.

Oh, how we miss our darlings here,
Our hearts feel sad and sore,
But oh, we hope to meet her there
Where death can part us nevermore.

One short week, with the morning sun,
And the Death Angel came again,
And took from us another loved one,
It was little Wallie freed from pain.

No more we here [sic] their tiny feet;
No more their little innocent voices,
In Jesus' arms they went to sleep;
Oh many angels now rejoice.

We know they cannot come to us,
but we may go to them,
God help us in Thee to trust
So that we all may meet again

General Notes: Biography of Rev. George Beall Hinkle

To those of us who knew him the Rev. George B. Hinkle stands out distinctly—a man tall of stature, straight as an arrow, with open, kindly face expressing a sincere honest nature. Prolonged acquaintance confirmed first impressions of sincerity of heart and singleness of purpose. He never swerved from duty nor from right. There were no obtuse or other angles in this man's life. The only sinuous curves he knew were those of the winding trails through the canyons and over the mountains on the big Nevada circuits. His course was straight ahead. On that line he went to the end, leaving a record for faith and fidelity and plodding service that counts in character and in the Kingdom of God.

Thinking of brother Hinkle, we also think of a group of the Nevada pioneer preachers; and the zephyrs from the hills and the valleys of the Battle-born State waft us a sagebrush fragrance odoriferously agreeable. We have pleasurable pride in having known some of those men of the mountains and the mines and the valleys and the sagebrush plains, and feel honored to have been in such a succession of service.

Descendants of Anthony Henckel

George B. Hinkle was admitted to the California Conference in 1860 in a class of fifteen, among whom were B. W. Rusk, W. B. Priddy, Asa P. White and W. S. Corwin. His first appointment was to Clover Creek Circuit, Mount Shasta District. The next circuits traveled were Diamond Springs and Eldorado. Nevada was then a District of the California Conference, Adam Bland, Presiding Elder; and in 1863 Mr. Hinkle was sent to Humboldt Circuit, which was not even a saddlebags circuit, for the preacher had neither horse or saddle. The next year he was appointed to the Truckee River Circuit. Both circuits were large, with preaching places eight, twelve, thirty-five and thirty-six miles apart, the distances to be covered on foot. Brother Hinkle was an Itinerant Pacer.

Nevada was not an inviting field, unless one looked for very hard work beset with difficulties and dangers. It called for men of heroic mold. They were available and ready. Taking nothing from the luster of any Nevada name, for the gift of the fullest measure of the years of effective ministry we must write highest on the Roll the name of George B. Hinkle, coupled with the name of his friend and mountain confrere-Warren Nims. Having once put their hands to Nevada's Gospel plows, these two brave men never looked back over the Sierra's to California's more congenial fields. The records show Mr. Hinkle, in thirty years, serving that geographical empire and ecclesiastical domain in all its widely-separated appointments: from Tuscarora and Elko to Bodie and Bridgeport; from Quincy to Coleville; from Winnemucca to Genoa.

Having traveled the mountains and the valleys for thirty-five years, building churches— sometimes quarrying the stone for the foundations and shaping the timbers for the framework with his own hands, erecting parsonages— doing much of the work and often furnishing most of the money, answering Roll-call at every Annual Session; never failing to "take the collections"; living always a true Christian life, and preaching a full Gospel everywhere, he asked for and was granted in 1893 the Supernumerary Relation. His superintendent, Dr. Eugene W. Van Deventer, said in his annual report: "All these years his life has been a faithful testimony for the right. No strain rests upon him." Four years later he was granted the Retired Relation.

He was not a college man—his only education being in the common schools of a country district seventy odd years ago. He was not really a man of books and wide reading. And yet, the Course of Study, the Hymnal and the Discipline, furnished the men in of those days with the fine equipment for their fields.

Mr. Hinkle was born December 25, 1829, at Pleasant Grove near Cumberland Maryland. He was converted at a Camp meeting in August 1849. In 1851 he moved to Missouri, and in 1853 crossed the Plains to California and engaged in mining. The Conference record is in the above paragraphs. On May 20, 1869, in Carson City Nevada, he and Priscilla Brown were united in marriage, solemnized by Rev. Dr. John d Hammond. One son was born to them, to whom they gave the name George. He grew to manhood and married. His death occurred a few years ago. Mrs. Hinkle is a noble woman and has proved a true helpmeet [sic] to her now sainted husband. She tarries this side awhile. Her crown awaits her. Our friend and ministerial brother died in Sacramento Cal., July 7, 1913. He was faithful unto death. His work abides. He lives forever. It is worth while to have known him.

Noted events in his life were:

- He had a residence from 1828 to 1851 in Cumberland, Allegany County, Maryland.^{641,648,658} He was born and raised on a farm 4 miles east of Cumberland.
- Church Affiliation: Methodist Episcopal, 1848-1913.^{648,654,659} Converted at a camp-meeting in 1848 in Maryland.
- Census 1850: 1850, Allegany County, Maryland.⁶⁵⁸
- He had a residence from 1851 to 1853 in Missouri.^{648,654}
- He immigrated from Missouri in 1853 to California.⁶⁴⁸
- He worked as a miner in California in 1853.
- Ministry: 1856, American Valley, Plumas County, California.⁶⁶⁰
- Ministry: 1857, Dutch Flat, Placer County, California.⁶⁶¹ "The first we know of Methodism in Dutch Flat, G. B. Hinkle, who had been sent the year before to American Valley, reported having been there half a year, and left twenty-five communicants, a parsonage worth $65, a Sunday-school having thirty scholars, and had received $150 in salary"

- Ministry: 1860, Clover Creek, Shasta County, California.^{654,662}
- Ministry: 1862, El Dorado, El Dorado County, California.^{654,663,664} Also Diamond Springs nearby.
- He worked as a Methodist Circuit Minister, United Methodist of the California-Nevada Annual Conference from 1863 to 1897 in Nevada and California.^{648,654,659,665,666,667} "This worthy man remained a staunch friend of the Nevada work for 30 years, the longest continuous service of any man in its history, retiring in 1893."

"Work of the Methodists:

In Nevada the Methodists have been active from the first. Wherever possible the influence of the church has been extended...

The Conference has been helped by the Board of Church Extension very greatly: it has been given practical aid, erecting new churches and helping rebuild those destroyed. Every new mining camp was visited, no territory, no matter how isolated, was neglected, for their traveling ministers were always ready to visit them."

"George B. Hinkle was received into full connection in 1863. He was in the Nevada work when the conference was formed. He has always remained there. So far as the writer knows, he has been a useful minister of the gospel. When the conference was given up, he very properly fell back into the California body, though still residing in Nevada. In 1897 he was on the superannuated list, his address being Reno."

Among the places he served were the following: Unionville NV, Star City NV, Sierraville CA, Truckee NV, Quincy CA, Coleville CA, Winnemucca NV, Genoa NV.

- Admitted into Conference: Admitted into full Conference, 2 September 1863-8 September 1863, Napa, Napa County, California.^{654,668}
- Ministry: 1863, Reno, Washoe County, Nevada.^{669,670} He did not preach regularly here at this time. Five years before Reno became a chartered town in 1868, a Methodist fellowship had gathered and was served by circuit riders Rev. Francis M. Willis and Rev. George B. Hinkle.
- Ministry: 1863-1864, Unionville and Star City, Pershing County, Nevada.^{666,668,671}
- Ministry: 1864, Truckee Meadows, Washoe County, Nevada.⁶⁷² This includes what is now Reno and Sparks.
- He had a residence in 1870 in Indian Twp., Plumas County, California.⁶⁷³
- Census 1870: 1870, Indian Twp., Plumas County, California.⁶⁷³
- County School Superintendent: 1872, Genoa, Douglas County, Nevada.⁶⁷⁴
- Ministry: Abt 1875, Winnemucca, Humboldt County, Nevada.⁶⁷⁵ "When George B. Hinkle came he built a church costing $4,000..."
- He had a residence before 1878 in Aurora, Mineral County, Nevada.⁶⁷⁶
- Ministry: 1878, Bodie, Mono County, California.^{676,677} Assigned to Bodie, and Bridgeport, California.
- He had a residence from 1878 to 1880 in Bodie, Mono County, California.^{665,676,678}
- Bodie Methodist Church: 1878-1880, Bodie, Mono County, California.^{676,678} During the time Rev. Hinkle was preaching in Bodie there was no Methodist Church. He preached in both the Minors Union Hall and the IOOF Hall. By the time the church was built he was transferred elsewhere.

Truckee River, Nevada and California

December 1878

We have no church, but Miners Union Hall answers that and a variety of other purposes. On Saturday evening, for instance, the hall was occupied for a "grand testimonial and complimentary benefit to Billy Costello, the champion lightweight of the Pacific Coast," matched to fight Harry Maynard for $1000, a side. The performance closed with a rattling "passage at arms" between Billy Costello and Cassidy. At ten o'clock Sunday morning the Rev. Father Cassin, of the Roman Catholic Church, said mass in the same place, but dismissed his congregation in time to allow Rev. G. B. Hinkle of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to preach to his little flock, at 2 p.m. In the same evening the platform of the same hall was occupied by an amateur minstrel performance, on which occasion were not a few of the dead and buried jokes of the past generation perpetrated upon the present one.

December 1879

Divine Services. Divine Services tomorrow at Odd Fellow's Hall at 11 A.M. and 7 P.M., G. B. Hinkle officiating. All are cordially invited to attend.

Reverend Hinckle Society entertains. A church sociable will be given by the ladies of Reverend Hinckle Society tomorrow evening. The best of music and a choice dramatic entertainment is down on the progame.

Oysters, lemonade, candies, fruits and popcorn balls for refreshment. A pleasant time together with a profitable social gathering is anticipated. Let everybody attend.

April 1880

Rev. Mr. Hinkle will soon commence the erection of a Methodist Church on Green Street, above Fuller – an excellent location.

- Methodist Sabbath School: March 1879, Bodie, Mono County, California.⁶⁷⁶ Organized a Methodist Sabbath School. By 1880 it has 130 children.
- Census 1880: 1880, Bodie, Mono County, California.⁶⁶⁵
- He had a residence in November 1880 in Walker River Valley, Mono County, California.⁶⁷⁶
- Ministry: 1880, Pine Grove and Masons Valley, Lyon County, Nevada.⁶⁶⁷ "Rev. G. B. Hinkle took charge in 1880 and since his coming a parsonage costing $600 had been erected."
- He had a residence from 1889 to 1890 in Lovelock, Humboldt County, Nevada.^{679,680} "Lovelock is in Humboldt County, Nev. Rev. George B. pastor. Brother Hinkle has had a difficult year. He has done the best he could and held the fort. The abundant harvest will make this charge less difficult next year. The Lord had great work here, and it must and will be done. There is a church and parsonage, and the church services have been maintained. Brother Hinkle is and old pioneer. He does not give up easily. He goes to his work and 'stays with it.'"
- Supernumerary Status: 1893. Requested supernumerary relation with the Methodist Conference.
- Retired: 1897, Reno, Washoe County, Nevada.^{654,662}

General Notes: Biography of Pricilla Bronw Hinkle

Mrs. Priscilla, C. Hinkle, nee brown, was born at Pittsburgh Penn. October 10th, 1829 and passed to her eternal home from Sacramento February 15th, 1914. When quite young she moved to Carson City, Nevada, and it was there she met the Rev. George B. Hinkle, and they were united in marriage May 20th, 1869, and for 24 years she lived the life of an active minister's wife. Brother Hinkle gave up the active ministry in 1893, but he and his good wife took an active interest in the work of the Church until the time of their death, always being found in their place at the regular service when possible, and holding up the hands of their pastor with prayer and helpful service. On July 7, 1913, Mr. Hinkle went to receive his reward, and Mrs Hinkle has been anxiously waiting the call of God ever since, and she was glad when the summons came, for she was ready for the Chariot of the Lord. Mrs. Hinkle was converted to God in early childhood and became an active worker in the Church as soon as she was able. After her marriage to Mr. Hinkle she took up the work of an itinerant's wife gladly, and never complained at the hardships of a frontier ministry. Many a time they have lived in a tent, until they could get to work and build a house in which to live. In moving long distances, from one charge to another, they have more than once slept out on the desert, for in those days there were no railroads and often no stages, and so they had to move with their own team and camp out where night over took them. She often denied herself of new clothes, a new hat, and the luxuries of living that they might put money into a parsonage or church, or perhaps send it away to help a more needy brother, and yet she did this gladly for Christ's sake and the Church. Wherever she went with her husband, she took a full interest in the work and was beloved in everyplace. Her home was always open for the people, and they were always glad to go and stop at the parsonage. Her influence on all charges they served was as ointment poured fourth and many are living today that can call her blessed. If all who have been blessed by her faithful ministry could have been at the Church when the last sad rites were pronounced over her, there would have been a large gathering. She will live in many a heart made better because of her kindly ministry.

Some years ago her only son passed away and she leaves now two grandsons, Henry and Kenneth Hinkle of Truckee, and their mother, to mourn her loss. May they follow faithfully in the footsteps of their grand-parents and live lives of usefulness as they did. The services were held from the Oak Park Methodist Episcopal Church on Tuesday afternoon, February 17th, led by Rev. J. C. Gillett, pastor. James Whitaker of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church who had known her for twenty-five years, and also Rev. H. W. Baker of Oak Park took Part.

From Mary Field Clouse

Gene - Didnt know if you had heard about Rae- She died last nite around 8 your time- They had taken her to a hospital the first of the week- She had a kidney stone which they removed by crushing and then they found she had a mass behind her spleen which Lynn thought was a large clot. im so glad she came to Indiana in November-I called the relatives around here and there were 45 people there- she had always said no one would come and see her She was very very happy and I told her everyone of them came to see her- She loved it- She was very thin but looked much better then I thought she would

Yes I am as good as new again- Glad Im out of knees and Im not sure I would have that one done again--They forget to tell you lots of things about the surgery- back at home and doing great- Carolyn

Williams just left for Chesterton She and her neice who is in the air medical division were here- They had a four wheel drive and as far as i know they were the only people around here who said the roads werent bad- Sure tired of winter- this has been a hard one with tons of snow- Everyone is going to welcome spring this year- H avent heard any more in formation about Rae except she was to be cremated- Talk later- Mary -.
