CHAUNCEY GOHN, 90, DIES SUDDENLY AT HIS HOME

Chauncey F. Gohn, one of Fremont's four survivors of the Civil War, passed away suddenly at his home on West Oak street Friday afternoon while lying on a couch. He was 90 years, nine months and 24 days old.

Mr. Gohn was born in Sommerset county, Pennsylvania, July 17, 1841, and went from Pennsylvania to Indiana with his parents when a small boy. On March 12, 1869, he was united in marriage to Rebecca H. Hart of LaGrange county, Ind., who died August 6, 1883. To this union were born six children, one dying in infancy and one daughter, Mary Jane Culver, preceding him in death 17 years ago. The four surviving children are Charles F. and Clara I. Gohn of Fremont, William H. Gohn of Kendallville, Ind., and Harry S. Gohn of Protection, Kan. Thirteen grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Gohn gave service to his country in the Civil War. He enlisted for three years in Company G, 48th Infantry, Indiana, and then re-enlisted in the 129th Infantry of Indiana for the remainder of the war. He was a member of Henry Dobson post, G. A. R., until it disbanded a few years ago.

Mr. Gohn was of a friendly nature and had many friends in the community.

The funeral services were held from the home Monday afternoon and were in charge of the Rev. Clyde E. Pickett, pastor of the Church of Christ. The body was borne to the grave by members of the American Legion and interment took place in Maple Grove cemetery.

The following relatives and friends from out of town attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gohn, Mrs. M. A. Drumbellar and baby and Richard Gohn of Kendallville, Ind.; Grant Culver, Mrs. Fred Reed and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Davis of Montpelier, Ohio. They returned to their homes Tuesday morning. Harry S. Gohn, a son, living at Protection, Kansas, was unable to come.
